SCHOOL REPORT.

As required by law, the school board present the following report of the schools in the town of Grantham, for the year ending March 1, 1891:

During the year two terms have been taught in each of the divisions, with an average of nineteen weeks for each division, being an increase of four weeks for the schools more than last year. While we cannot say that all the work has been entirely satisfactory to us, we can and do say with pleasure that much of it has given us a high degree of satisfaction.

As one thing that would doubtless tend to the advantage of them, we recommend that parents, guardians, and all others concerned, visit the schools more frequently; not in a spirit of censoriousness or fault-finding, but with a heart full of sympathy, and with words of encouragement for both teacher and scholars. We not only recommend this, but we would emphasize it as a duty. Until this has been done, and in a kindly spirit, no one has a right to find fault with the school, or to speak disparagingly of it. Hearsay evidence, no matter from whom it may come, is not admissible in any court of justice. Then, by personal contact with them from individual visitation, become thoroughly acquainted with your schools. Do not turn them out the first of May and leave them to pick for themselves till the snows of winter begin to fall, as some men do their cattle, and then wonder why they are in no better condition. Care for your schools. Be interested in them, if you are not already so. Common schools are the bulwark of our civil institutions—yes, the stronghold of national independence—and need to be well guarded. Look well, then, to your schools.

In accordance with the "Free text book law," the several schools have been supplied with books as there has been need. Generally the books have been used with care, many of them giving scarcely any evidence of having been handled.

By way of repairs new windows have been put into the school-house at North Grantham, and foot rests provided for the small scholars there, and also for those of the village school.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE C. BARTON, } School Board
MRS. A. C. TYRREL, } of
REV. G. A. TYRREL, } Grantham.
